

Neighborhood Alert

White Power Gentrifiers Operating in Lakewood Heights

Meet Sam Glasgow Dickson and Evan Thomas Anderson, white nationalist leaders who own property in Lakewood Heights. As national-level figures of the white power movement, these racists do not have your best interests at heart as they attempt to profit from the neighborhood. Dickson mostly owns vacant lots which he hopes to eventually sell as neighborhoods gentrify. Dickson's associate, Evan Thomas, is currently invested in the building at 1701 Jonesboro Rd SE and owns some neighborhood lots.

We are sending you this flyer so you can recognize Anderson and Dickson, and know their history and motives.

About Sam Dickson

Sam Dickson is a leader of the white nationalist movement with a history spanning decades. In 1978, Dickson ran for Lieutenant Governor of Georgia on a segregationist platform. As a lawyer, Dickson repeatedly worked for Klan members. Dickson has been involved in a string of racist organizations, such as the Council of Conservative Citizens, American Renaissance (he always speaks at their conferences), the pseudo-intellectual Charles Martel Society and the Holocaust-denying Barnes Review.

Sam Dickson speaking at American Renaissance, an annual "suit-and-tie" white power conference.

Dickson made a fortune by purchasing unpaid tax debts, then used them as leverage to obtain properties at bargain prices. Dickson sells these properties when neighborhoods gentrify. Dickson has been accused of using "bullying" tactics to gain title to property. Two companies linked to Dickson - his "Hickory Hill 1185 LLC" as well as "The Beltem Trust" (operated by a UK far-Right figure with Dickson's assistance) - own lots on Rhodesia Avenue in Lakewood Heights.

Evan Anderson speaks at May 2017 racist rally in Charlottesville, VA

About Evan Anderson

Evan Thomas Anderson – who legally changed his name from Evan Thomas Kuettner – is also active in Lakewood Heights property. Anderson is part of Identity Evropa, an explicitly white nationalist organization, and is based at Dickson’s home in the Peachtree Hills neighborhood of Buckhead. Originally from Michigan, Kuettner/Anderson arranged multiple events for Canadian white supremacist/Holocaust-denier Paul Fromm there.

More recently, Evan Anderson booked a Charlottesville, Virginia park for a May 13, 2017 white nationalist protest led by notorious Alt-Right figure Richard Spencer. This May event in Charlottesville was a direct precursor to the August 2017 “Unite the Right” rally in that city, which culminated in white supremacist violence and murder. Both Dickson and Anderson attended “Unite the Right.”

Anderson is currently invested in the building at 1701 Jonesboro Rd SE under the business name “Sun Rising LLC”. Anderson also owns lots on Lakewood Avenue, and used to own a building there. In addition, Anderson operates “Good Earth Properties LLC” and may try to buy property with this business name. Anderson was listed on recent property documents as a member of Dickson’s “Hickory Hill 1185” and “Befare LLC” companies.

Stand by Your Neighbors - Stand Against Organized Racists

Dickson and Anderson are involved in property dealings in Lakewood Heights as well as the nearby Summerhill neighborhood. Please contact us if you have further information about their efforts. If Dickson, Anderson, or their associates try to obtain a title from a neighbor, stand by your neighbors and resist these hardcore racists. See our website for additional documentation on Dickson and Anderson’s white power activity.

Sam Dickson (left) and Evan Anderson (center) attending the bloody “Unite the Right” white power rally in Charlottesville, Virginia last year.